CHAPTER 1

Preamble

Brief History of Snowshoe Gun Club:

The Snowshoe Gun Club (SGC) was first established in 1970 on land leased from the Kenai Peninsula Borough (KPB). The club was initially incorporated and received non-profit status with the IRS, effective March, 1971. Through volunteer efforts the facilities grew to include: two trap fields, a skeet field, a 1000-yard rifle range with fourteen shooting positions, 12 pistol bays, a black rifle bay, and a black powder only bay.

In 2007 the KPB, expressed a desire to “get out of the gun range business.” The Board of Directors approached the borough about buying the land, and through the support of the shooting public and several law enforcement agencies, the borough agreed to sell the land to SGC for below appraised value. With the change in property status the club restated and amended its articles of incorporation with the State of Alaska in April, 2007 and adopted revised bylaws.

Owning the land on which SGC sits has allowed the club to expand its infrastructure without risking losing the investment with the loss or cancellation of the lease. Since the land was purchased a training building has been built, and the pistol range has been expanded significantly. The training building has expanded the club’s involvement in the shooting community and hosts a number of organizations, along with the State of Alaska’s Hunter Education program.

In 2014 the club approached KPB to purchase an additional 77 acres on the north border of the club property. This additional property allowed the rifle range to be expanded to 1,000 yards.

Description of Facility:

The SGC facility is a 263 acre complex, and consists of five separate areas: clays range, rifle range, pistol range, black rifle range, and black powder range. It is accessed from the Kenai Spur Highway at approximately mile 6.4 by turning north onto Shotgun Drive, and passing through the control gate on the east side of Shotgun Drive.

Clays Range

Trap and skeet fields are located on the west side of the range access road, across from the training building.

There are two established trap fields. Trap field 1 is located on the south end of the trap/skeet fields, and trap field 2 is adjacent to field 1, just to the north. Both fields incorporate voice-activated trap machines capable of throwing double clays as well as a wobble function. The trap fields have cement station walkways.

There is currently one established skeet field (skeet field 1), located north of, and adjacent to, trap field 2. The field is a gravel pad with the stations indicated by survey markers. Skeet field 2 is slated for completion in 2016, and will be located adjacent to skeet field 1, on the north side.

Rifle Range

The rifle range is accessed by driving north on the range access road, past the trap/skeet fields.

The rifle range is a 1000 yard range, with berms established every 100 yards out to 600 with one at 800 and 1000 yards, and is oriented to the north. The range firing line is on a covered cement slab and has 10 permanent outside shooting benches and an extension earthen berm to the west. An enclosed shooting shack is located on the east (right) side of the range firing line. The shooting shack has four shooting positions behind a Plexiglass barrier with shooting ports. The shack has a wood burning stove for heating during the colder months. Target stands are provided on each of the berms by way of metal frames supporting wooden pallets to which targets can be stapled. A supply of replacement pallets is maintained on the west side of the firing line. Members are allowed to replace pallets as needed. Tannerite or glass targets are not allowed.

For safety purposes the rifle range firing line has red strobe lights to indicate when the range is cold and people are down range. There are two strobes located above the outside shooting positions and one strobe located in the shooting shack. The switch to activate the strobes is located on the outside wall of the shooting shack, to left of the door to the shack. Before turning off the lights, positively verify no one is downrange by driving out the target access road if necessary.

A target access road is established on the east (right) side of the rifle range. The road is gravel and stable out to 500 yards, beyond which is a newly extended road to 1000 yards that is still soft and will need additional work. Use of ATV's is authorized on the access road.

Pistol Range

The pistol range is located on the range access road, after it passes the rifle range and turns east. The pistol range is currently composed of twelve (12) individual pistol bays, running in length from 25 to 50 yards. The bays run north, along the east side of the road and are oriented toward the east. For reference, the pistol bays are numbered from the south, 1 through 12. Each bay is enclosed on three sides by earthen berms approximately sixteen (16) feet high..

Enclosed shooting shacks are located on bays 3 and 12. The shack at bay 3 has four shooting positions and the shack at bay 12 has five shooting positions. Each shooting position has a port that can be closed. The shacks also have a wood burning stove for heat during colder months.

Target stands are not provided at the pistol range. Members must bring their own target stands. The use of pallets for target stands at the pistol range, either from the rifle range or those brought from outside the club, is not authorized. Vehicles are driven into the bays for set up, and pallets leave nails on the ground as they are shot. Tannerite or glass targets are not allowed.

Black Rifle Range

North and west of bay 12 is a 200 yard bay for use by black rifle shooters and law enforcement training. There is also a 150 yard area to be used by both black rifle and black powder shooters. Tannerite or glass targets are not allowed.

Black Powder Range

West of the black rifle bay is a 100 yard bay dedicated strictly to black powder shooters. Absolutely no modern firearms are to be used in the black powder bay. Tannerite or glass targets are not allowed.

Organizational Structure

Gate Control:

Purpose of Gate Control

Per agreement with the club's insurance carrier, SGC is not required to have a range manager, or RSO's, on-site for members to use the facility. However, the club is required to prevent unescorted non-members ready access to the ranges. This is accomplished through the use of locked gates into the facility, where only members have keys to open the gate. For that reason, members are prohibited from loaning their keys to anyone. Members are required to close and lock the gate whenever they enter or leave the club.

Location of Gates

There are two gates to control access to the ranges. The first is the main gate at the entrance to the club, off of Shotgun Drive. This is the primary gate used to control and limit access to the entire facility. The second gate is located just past the trap/skeet fields and controls access only to the rifle and pistol ranges. The second gate is normally closed only when the trap/skeet fields are open for public shooting, as described below.

Open Gates

There are times when the gate(s) need to be left open. Open trap/skeet shooting and USPSA matches are examples of when the gates are left open. In the instance of open trap/skeet shooting, where the public is invited and the main gate is left open, the second gate should be closed and locked to restrict access to the rifle and pistol ranges. For matches that are open to the public at the rifle range, or pistol range, both gates are left open only for those times non-members might be attending the match.

Other examples during which both gates might be left open are law enforcement training, bear guard training, organized activities such as the Alaska High School Rodeo and Women on Target.

Whenever the gate(s) are left open a tag/sign stating why the gate(s) are open is to be posted at the main gate. Tags should be attached to the lock, and signs can either be placed in the sign box to the right of the gate, or attached to the gate itself.

If the main gate is found open without either a tag or sign explaining why the gate is open, members have been instructed, are expected, to close and lock the gate.

Disciplinary Actions

Safety is the first consideration when using club facilities. All members of the Snowshoe Gun Club have gone through a standardized, club specific safety orientation at least once and have been made fully aware of the range rules. By signing the membership registration card, they are agreeing to follow club firearm safety policy, all firearm and range safety rules. Any member who violates general firearms safety rules, or SGC range rules, puts other members/shooters at risk, or commits acts of vandalism to club property, is subject to expulsion from the club.

The decision to expel a member rests with the Board of Directors. In the interest of expediency and ensuring safety an individual Director can act to revoke a membership. Any member who has their membership revoked can appear before the Board at a meeting and appeal the revocation.

It is the duty of Range Safety Officers to ensure activities on the ranges are conducted in a safe manner in accordance with club safety procedures. Any RSO is authorized to ask any individual who is, in the RSO's good judgment, acting in an unsafe or disruptive manner to leave the club premises. The RSO should report any such incident to a member of the Board so disciplinary action can be considered.

The Board will also review reports of unsafe actions from general members to determine if disciplinary action is warranted.

CHAPTER 3

Safety

Range Operations Guide

1. General. Live firing conducted at the Snowshoe Gun Club (SGC) facility is intended to provide authorized personnel access to a facility where they can become proficient with privately-owned firearms.

2. Facilities for Use. Live-fire shooting is normally limited to the following ranges and equipment:

- a. Rifle Range/Black Rifle Range - Modern rifles up to .50 caliber; pistols and shotguns any caliber or gauge; black powder firearms any caliber (no cannons).
- b. Pistol Range - Pistols any caliber; modern rifles up to .50 caliber; tactical shotguns (no aerial targets); black powder firearms any caliber (no cannons).
- c. Clays Range - Shotguns only with # 6 or smaller shot. No slugs are allowed.
- d. Black Powder Range – Black powder only, no modern firearms.

3. Range Limitations and Safety Requirements. Shooters will:

- a. Fire only authorized firearms and ammunition. Tracer ammunition is allowed only when no fire danger exists. If burn permits are required, no tracer ammunition is allowed.
- b. Fire at authorized targets only. If metal targets are used, they must be placed far enough away to prevent any splash back from reaching the firing line - 10 yards minimum for .22 LR, 25 yards minimum for pistols and 50 yards minimum for centerfire rifles.
- c. Direct their fire so that projectiles impact within the club property.
- d. Ensure the safety strobe lights on the rifle range are turned on anytime people are down range.
- e. Call “Cease firing” and make all firearms safe before any shooter moves forward of the firing line, or if any unsafe condition exists.

- f. Use appropriate and adequate ear protection. (In some situations double hearing protection is necessary.)
- g. Wear appropriate eye protection.
- h. Notify CRSO or Board members of any safety infractions.
- i. Dispose of used targets and trash in containers provided.
- j. Exercise muzzle control whenever handling firearms, ensuring the muzzle is always pointed in a safe direction.
- k. Ensure all firearms out and not in use are placed in a visibly “no fire” condition - actions open, removable magazines out, cylinders open, etc..

4. Authorized & Prohibited Firearms and Targets. Use of full automatic firearms is permitted, provided the properly licensed owner is present. Cannons, thunder mugs, spud guns or other unconventional firearms are prohibited. Reactive targets, such as spinners and bouncing plastic targets (such as top hats and hex-cubes) is permitted. Glass targets are not allowed. Steel targets are allowed, but shooters must ensure the targets are placed far enough away to prevent splash back or ricochets. Use of any exploding targets, such as Tannerite, is strictly prohibited.

5. Authorized Personnel. The following persons are authorized to use SGC facilities:

- a. Current members of SGC
- b. Guests accompanied by current members. The member assumes full responsibility for the conduct of his or her guests.
- c. Non-members shooting in SGC sponsored events, such as rifle and pistol matches, or open trap/skeet shoots.
- d. Non-members who are receiving sanctioned training on a reserved range, such as law enforcement agencies, Hunter Ed classes or bear guard training courses.

6. Responsibilities.

- a. Board of Directors
  - (1) Manage, maintain and develop the facilities and ranges at SGC.
  - (2) Schedule matches and events sponsored by SGC. Maintain a schedule of reserved ranges.

- (3) Establish RSO training using the NRA Range Safety Officer Training Program, and continually evaluate the effectiveness of the range safety program at the club.

b. Chief Range Safety Officer

- (1) Conduct the training for RSO's using the NRA Range Safety Officer Training Program.
- (2) Ensure each RSO understands and can execute live-fire procedures in accordance with this chapter.
- (3) Provide each RSO with a card identifying them as a club RSO, and ensure a list of all RSO's is maintained.
- (4) Provide each RSO a copy of Chapter 3 for their use and reference.

c. Club RSO's Anyone desiring to become an RSO for the club must be approved by at least one member of the Board and the CRSO. RSO status is accomplished by attending an RSO class given by the CRSO. Information on dates and times for these classes can be obtained by contacting the CRSO, Larry Rogers at 283-4048.

- (1) Verify the following are available: first aid kit, range binder and any special instructions.
- (2) Greet shooters as they arrive on the range to let them know the activities are being directed by an RSO. Be prepared to present club RSO identification card whenever working on the ranges.
- (3) Conduct range inspection, if the range is inactive, using the appropriate checklist.
- (4) Check to ensure that all shooters are current club members, or are accompanied by a current member.
- (5) If necessary, conduct a range safety briefing. Any special situations/conditions on the range warrant a range safety briefing. New or inexperienced shooters should be given a range safety briefing to familiarize them with how the range operates under the direction of an RSO - range commands, etc.
- (6) Conduct live fire in accordance with section 6(d) of this chapter. Failure of shooters to abide by the rules listed in section 6(d), or the posted range use rules, will result in immediate eviction from the range and possible revocation of club membership. Report all incidents to the CRSO, or a Board member.

d. Club Members

- (1) All shooters must follow the directions of the RSO, if present, while at the range.
- (2) Shooters will conduct themselves in accordance with range rules and must ensure any guests are aware of and follow range rules.
- (3) All shooters are responsible for the security of their guns, gear and ammunition while on the SGC facility.
- (4) Firearms brought to firing line that are not in use must be placed on the bench or in a rack in a safe condition: action open and facing up, chamber empty, muzzles pointing downrange (or up in the case of guns in the rack), and safeties on.
- (5) Firearms are to be loaded only on the firing line, and only after the RSO has declared the range to be “hot.”
- (6) Do not point firearms at anything other than authorized targets located downrange.
- (7) Fire only at your own target.
- (8) Give the command “Cease firing!” if an unsafe condition exists.
- (9) Follow all instructions from the RSO.
- (10) Dispose of your used targets and trash in the appropriate containers before leaving.

7. Hours of Operation and Scheduling. The normal hours of operation for the Snowshoe Gun Club are the same as those for the City of Kenai’s noise ordinance. Light permitting, those hours are 6:00 am until 10:00 pm. It is recommended that during the work week shooting stop by 9:00 pm to maintain good relations with the club’s neighbors. Scheduled/reserved range use times, listed on the Match and Reserved Dates list on the club’s website, takes precedence over shooting by members.

8. Alcoholic Beverages and Drugs. Alcoholic beverages are not allowed on the facility. The use of any drug, including prescription and over-the-counter medications that could impair a shooter's ability to function safely, is not allowed before or during live firing. The RSO will deny range access to anyone in violation of this alcohol and drug policy. If required, the RSO will notify the Alaska State Troopers of such a situation.

9. Medical Emergencies. In the event of a medical emergency, call 911 and initiate the emergency procedure as outlined later in this chapter. The main gate to the ranges has a Knox Box to allow entry by emergency medical personnel, but if possible someone should be sent to the gate to open it and direct the responders. Notify the CRSO, or any Board member, of the emergency as soon as the situation permits.

Range Safety Briefing

The range safety briefing presented here is to be used for general, recreational shooting by members only. For match or special shooting events range safety briefings specific to the discipline/match will be used, as provided by the governing rule book or other guideline.

While all shooters arriving at the range should be greeted by the RSO, unless unusual circumstances exist that need explanation, not every person or group who arrives at the range will need to be given a full range safety briefing. As an RSO, and club member, you will know many of the shooters personally, or will have seen them at the range before, and will be aware of how familiar they are with the SGC range rules and protocols. However, those who are unfamiliar to the RSO should be greeted and assessed. If, in the RSO's good judgment, the person(s) are inexperienced or unfamiliar with the range and its protocols, they should be given a safety briefing to ensure they are familiar with how activities on the range are conducted. This is particularly true of guests. Safety is paramount. It never hurts to review the safety rules.

The following range safety briefing should be used as a guide. The RSO should rely on his or her own good judgment as to how closely the briefing presented below should be followed.

1. Greet and Introduce Yourself.

- Introduce and identify yourself as the RSO. Be prepared to show your RSO card. If there are more RSO's than yourself, point them out.
- Explain your role as RSO is to ensure safety and smooth operation of the range.
- Ask for proof of membership, a membership card is preferable.
- Explain that in the event of an emergency, such as an injury, shooters may be asked to assist by taking notes or acting as a guide for emergency response. Ask about medical training.

2. Conduct a Range Orientation.

❖ Pistol Range, Black Rifle Range, Black Powder Range

- Explain the layout of the bays and how the different bays have different lengths.
- Note that all shooting in the bays is to be conducted inside the confines of the berms; shooting from outside the bay enclosure is prohibited.
- Explain targets are to be kept low in the bay, no targets are to be set on top of the back berm and climbing the berms is not permitted.

- Explain the use of the shooting shack on bay 3 and 12.
- Identify the outhouse and ask that the door be kept closed when not in use.
- Request shooters clean up their targets, stands and other trash before leaving.

❖ Rifle Range

- Identify the outside shooting points and the shooting shack on the east side of the firing line. Explain the use of the shooting shack.
- Explain the use of target stands within the 100 yard berm.
- Point out the target stands on the berms and explain the use of pallets for tacking targets. Show where additional pallets are stored, and explain the shooter is authorized to replace pallets.
- Explain that access to any targets placed beyond the 200 yard berm must be made by driving down the access road, not walking.
- Explain and demonstrate the location and use of the strobe lights.
- Identify the outhouse and ask that the door be kept closed when not in use.
- Request the shooters pull and dispose of their targets and pick up any trash before leaving.

❖ Clays Range

- Identify trap fields 1 and 2, and note if the trap machines are set to throw doubles or wobbles.
- Point out the high/low houses and shooting stations on the skeet field.
- Explain all hulls are to be picked up after shooting a round.
- Explain/demonstrate the trap activation for both the trap field and skeet field.
- If the training building is open, explain the restroom can be used. Otherwise point out the outhouse and ask that the door be kept closed when not in use.

3. Safety Rules

❖ Fundamental Safety Rules

- Always keep the gun pointed in a safe direction, so that if it did discharge it would not cause injury.
- Always keep your finger off the trigger until ready to shoot.
- Always keep the gun unloaded until ready to use.
- Be sure the gun is safe to use.
- Know how to use the gun safely. Have you read your instruction manual?

❖ General Range Safety Rules

- Know and obey all range commands.
- Be aware of others around you, both their location and their actions.
- Shoot only at authorized targets.
- Be sure of your target and what is beyond.
- Explain that if assistance from the RSO is needed due to a malfunction, or failure, the shooter should raise his or her non-shooting hand.
- Stop shooting immediately upon the command “Cease firing.”
  - Stop shooting.
  - Repeat the command “Cease firing” to ensure others nearby have heard the command.
  - Stay in place and wait further instructions from the RSO.
- Explain that anyone can call “Cease firing” whenever a safety issue is encountered. After a cease firing only the RSO can call the range hot again.
- Explain the three common ammunition stoppages.
  - Misfire - when a cartridge does not fire after the primer has been struck by the firing pin
  - Hangfire - a perceptible delay in the ignition of the cartridge after the primer has been struck
  - Squib load - when there is less than normal pressure or bullet velocity after ignition of the cartridge. The bullet may, or may not, exit the barrel. Squib loads are identified by the difference in recoil or noise.
- Describe the normal procedure for handling misfires and hangfires.
  - Notify the RSO by raising your non-shooting hand.
  - Keep the gun pointed down range.
  - With misfires wait at least 30 seconds with modern cartridge guns in case it is a hangfire. With muzzle loading guns wait at least two minutes.
  - Clear the chamber.
- Describe the normal procedure for handling squib loads.
  - Notify the RSO by raising your non-shooting hand.
  - Keep the gun pointed down range.
  - Unload the gun and make sure the chamber is empty.
  - Insert a cleaning rod, or dowel, down the barrel from the chamber end (if possible) to make sure the bullet is not lodged in the barrel.

❖ Snowshoe Gun Club Range Rules

- Point out the SGC range rules posted in conspicuous locations.
- Ask the shooters to review them quickly.
- Explain all firearms are to arrive and leave the firing line empty. The exception is concealed carry. If concealed carry firearms are not used, and remain holstered, they may remain on the person and loaded.
- Explain that eating, drinking and smoking on the firing line are discouraged due to potential lead exposure.
- Ask if there are any questions.

4. Firing Line Commands

- “Is the line ready?” allows a shooter with problems to raise their hand to indicate they are not ready.
- “Ready on the right?”, “Ready on the left?”, “Ready on the firing line!” is the sequence of commands, with a slight pause between each command, that gives shooters their last chance to indicate they are not ready.
- “The firing line is ready, the range is hot!” indicates all shooters are ready, no personnel are downrange, firearms may be handled and firing may commence.
- “Misfire” is called by a shooter to inform the RSO and other shooters that a gun failed to fire and a hazardous condition may exist.
- “Cease firing!” notifies shooters to stop firing immediately and await further instructions. Anyone on the firing line can call “Cease firing!” if an unsafe condition is observed.
- “Is the line clear on the right?”, “Is the line clear on the left?” means shooters indicate all firearms have been unloaded, the actions are open and the chambers are clear. The RSO should look up and down the line and check inside shooting shack to verify all firearms have been made safe before declaring the line is clear.
- “The line is clear, step away from your firearms. The range is now cold.” Indicates all firearms are made safe and it is safe to go downrange. The RSO will activate the strobe light to indicate people are downrange.

Emergency Procedures

In all emergencies the RSO is expected to take control of the situation and ensure the safety of personnel on the range. The RSO will assign responsibilities to others present as needed to efficiently respond to the emergency. Examples of duties that could be assigned are: providing entry and guidance to responders, rendering aid (within capabilities and training) to injured persons, taking notes and recording names of witnesses, and calling 911.

FIRES:

Fire response is provided by the City of Kenai Fire Department.

- Immediately call “Cease firing!” and direct that all firearms be made safe.
- Make sure all shooters are aware of the situation and everyone is accounted for.
- Call 911 and report the fire.
- Provide any information the dispatcher requests.
- Direct someone to go to the gate to open it and act as a guide for the responders.
- Fill out the emergency report form and notify CRSO or a Board member.

ILLNESS/INJURY:

Emergency medical response is provided by the City of Kenai Fire Department.

- Immediately call “Cease firing!” and direct that all firearms be made safe.
- Determine seriousness of injury or illness and whether emergency response personnel (EMS) should be contacted.

For minor injuries/illness not requiring EMS response:

- Render minor first aid, if requested. (Do not administer aspirin or other medications.)
- Get pictures of the injury, if possible.
- Fill out the injury report form and provide it to the CRSO or a Board member as soon as convenient.

For injuries/illness requiring EMS response:

- Call, or direct another person to call, 911 and provide any information the dispatcher requests.
- Evaluate the situation for any additional hazards, protect the injured and render first aid within your capability and training by:
  - Identify self to injured.

- Inform injured of aid offered.
- Receive verbal permission from injured (if adult), or parent/guardian (if child) before giving care.
- Do not provide care to any conscious person who objects.
- Assume implied permission if the injured is unconscious or unable to respond.
- Assume implied permission if the injured is a child with a serious injury and a parent or guardian is not present.
- Move the injured only if life is endangered.
- Check injured for life threatening condition before providing care.
Provide care only within your level of training.
- Only dispense aspirin or other medications if directed by EMS personnel.
- Stay with the injured person until relieved by EMS personnel.
- Direct someone to meet emergency responders and provide directions to the injured.
- Direct someone to take notes and write down the names of witnesses.
- If the injury involves a gunshot, preserve the scene as it appeared at the time of the incident. Take pictures, if possible.
- Once injured has been transported, or treated and released by EMS personnel, fill out the emergency report form and the injury report form.
- Notify the CRSO or a Board member of the emergency as soon as possible.

Range Safety Officer (RSO) Training Requirements

Any individual who wishes to become an Range Safety Officer at the Snowshoe Gun Club must be approved by the club CRSO and a Board member. All RSO's should possess adequate knowledge and experience with firearms to be capable of assisting shooters on the firing line and maintaining a safe environment at the range.

All Range Safety Officers for the Snowshoe Gun Club must pass the NRA Basic Range Safety Officer Course and maintain their certification with the NRA. Training to become an NRA certified RSO will be offered by the club. Any NRA certified RSO who has been certified through training at other facilities can become a Snowshoe Gun Club RSO by providing verification of their training and certification to the CRSO and Board of Directors. Those individuals will receive additional, site specific training for Snowshoe Gun Club by the CRSO before assuming duties as a club RSO.

Additional training, such as first aid and CPR training, is encouraged but not mandatory. Such training may be made available to the club RSO's through the club. If such training is made available, current RSO's of the club should make every effort to attend.
